Don't Let an Inconvenience Become an Injury

Dropping a bottle, breaking a glass – we’ve all been there. You’re awash with instant embarrassment and want to clean it up and make it go away as soon as possible. Instead of rushing right in, consider your own safety and the safety of others before just throwing sharp objects in the trash. READ MORE »

Inaccurate and Outdated Signs and Labels

By
Joan
Hutzly

Nearly every day I see a sign, label or some other type of posting that is not accurate or is outdated. Accurate communication is crucial to working and going about our daily lives, and improper signage poses a danger.
