Statement from Katie Callow-Wright

 Office of the Executive Vice President

Dear Princeton Campus Community,

Princeton University is committed to maintaining and advancing a culture where safety and health are core values, adopted and practiced throughout all levels of the University.

This month we join other organizations and businesses nationwide in marking Safe + Sound Week, August 12-16, 2024. The week gives us an opportunity to raise awareness of the value of safety and health programs, and reinforce our commitment to a safe and health working environment.

I encourage all members of the campus community to explore programs offered by Environmental Health and Safety (EHS) at Princeton by going to ehs.princeton.edu or contacting EHS at 609-258-5294 or ehs@princeton.edu.

Sincerely,

Katie Callow-Wright
Executive Vice President
Princeton University

Participate For a Chance to Win Stuff!

Nominate a Safety Top Tiger

Nominate someone you work with who practices safety and stands as a positive example for others.

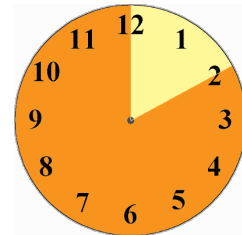

Nominated individuals could win valuable prizes!

Safety and health matters to me!
Why I'm #SafeAndSoundAtWork

Why Are You Safe+Sound?

Send us a video answering the question, "Why I'm Safe and Sound at Work." Tell us why safety matters to you; we will feature the videos on our social media. Please limit videos to 30 seconds or less

Take 10 and Take Action

Take 10 minutes to inspect your workplace for safety issues related to equipment, housekeeping and other areas. Our checklist will help you identify and remediate common hazards.

Want us to film your video?

Stop by the 100 Level of Frist Campus Center on Monday of this week between 11-1 to meet some EHS folks and we'll film you telling us why you are #SafeAndSoundAtWork

Supervising For Safety

As part of Safe + Sound Week, Kelly States will be conducting an intensive session of her award-winning Supervising For Safety course. The three-session program will be taught over two days, Wed. August 14 and the morning of Thurs., August 15.

Developed specifically for supervisors and managers, the program is designed to help those who supervise employees to become proficient leaders for safety.
